Tentative Schedule, subject to change at the whims of current mismanagement:

Friday February 08, 2019 at 6:30 Former GMs trail.

Saturday February 09, 2019 at 10am Current GM trail

(New mismanagement will be introduced after the Saturday trail)

Sunday February 10, 2019 at 10am New SDH3 Mismanagement trail

Normally AGM is a one-day event when the old MM turns over to the new MM through some magical production, but this year we, the current MM, wanted to make our last moments with you prolonged (like our imaginary phallic member) so we turned the event into a campout weekend. WHAT?! SDH3 is camping together for a whole weekend?!?!
