

- 1: Who should you talk to about volunteering to hare?
 - a) Nobody, lack of communication is important
 - b) One of the RAs
 - c) A member of the pack
 - d) The Hare Raiser

- 2: What qualifications should you look for in a co-hare?
 - a) Draw a name out of a hat
 - b) Someone dependable and competent
 - c) Your best friends in the hash
 - d) Anyone who will say yes

- 3: Who is the best person to contact to find out what your budget is for your trail?
 - a) The Hare Raiser
 - b) Shoeless Ho
 - c) The Hash Cash
 - d) Call Jenny at 867-5309

- 4: What is the first part of your trail that you should figure out?
 - a) Location of the on-in
 - b) The start location
 - c) Your 'go plan'
 - d) Nothing, just wing it.

- 5: What qualities should you look for in a start location?
 - a) Plenty of legal parking, safety
 - b) It doesn't really matter
 - c) It has to be at the same location as the on-in
 - d) Someplace scenic

- 6: What MUST you do to promote your trail?
 - a) Create a Facebook event
 - b) Post the runstart on SDH3.com
 - c) Promote your trail at other hashes during announcements
 - d) All of the above

- 7: Why is it a good idea to use an online mapping tool like Google Maps to scout the trail?
 - a) Because the internet is fun
 - b) So you don't have to scout in person
 - c) It allows you to gauge the approximate distance
 - d) You should never use Google Maps

- 8: Why must you scout the trail in person?
 - a) Because things may have changed since the Google Maps picture
 - b) To get an idea about things like elevation changes
 - c) To note obstacles such as barbed wire fences which are too small to see on Google Maps
 - d) All of the above

9: What qualifies as a good beercheck location?

- a) In the middle of some Poison Oak
- b) Stash it along a busy path where mortals can see it
- c) Someplace hidden or where one of the hares can host the check
- d) None of the above

10: Which details should be included in your Go Plan on the day of trail?

- a) A time line that allows for pre-laying, stashing beerchecks and/or cars if needed
- b) You don't need a Go Plan. Everything will probably be fine
- c) Your social security number and bank account passwords
- d) Your go plan should consist of a number of pictures drawn with crayons and glitter

11: What should you NOT lie about during your hare lies run brief?

- a) Matters of safety
- b) Your investment portfolio
- c) Whether or not there are any YBFs
- d) You should never lie, it's a figure of speech.

12: How often should you mark trail?

- a) Every quarter mile is sufficient
- b) Often enough to see the next mark or two from the mark you're at
- c) You only need to mark trail if the trail turns, but it's not needed as long as trail goes straight
- d) Every five feet

SHORT ANSWER

13: What are three qualities to look for when scouting a bar as a potential on-in?

14: What does Shoeless Ho call a hash with no beerchecks?

15: What are three types of start/on-in combinations?

EXTRA CREDIT:

What did you think about this class?

What would you have liked to have learned more about?